BIOGRAPHY

R-CUE (Melbourne, Australia) is among Australia's most wanted Open Format artists and producers. The unique ability R-CUE has to play Hip Hop / RNB and also EDM makes him stand out from other artists.

After DJing for the Fatman Scoop Hype Tour in 2014

R-CUE was personally asked by Ciara's management to be the Official Tour DJ for Ciara's 2015 Australian tour, comprising of 8 shows around the country. R-CUE was also then instilled as Support

DJ for Ja Rule & Ashanti later that year.

Furthermore, in 2016 R-CUE was one of the Support DJs for Jason Derulo, T.I. and Pia Mia's arena show in Melbourne.

Additionally, in 2017 R-CUE was Support DJ for Drake and Jacquees in 2019.

In 2018 R-CUE released his debut single "Like I Do", testament to the quality of the track it was played on the top radio stations in Australia following it's release including Hit FM Network. In addition, Like I Do was added to the instore radio rotation for leading Australian organisations Myer, Coles and Woolworths.

After the release of Like I Do, R-CUE released his latest track "Dirty Wine" signed to Teamwrk Records which is part of Universal Music Australia.

R-CUE's podcasts are listened all around the world and has millions of plays & thousands of downloads on SoundCloud.

As a sign of R-CUE's reputation and hard work he has played international headline shows at DJ Mag Top 100 Clubs including #33 Illuzion (Phuket, Thailand) and #88 CÉ LA VI (Singapore).

In total R-CUE has performed at more than 50 international shows, this includes a 6 city tour in India which featured a massive festival. R-CUE has also played all around Australia's biggest venues including Marquee at The Star Casino (Sydney, NSW),

Rod Laver Arena (Melbourne, VIC),

Festival Hall (Melbourne, VIC), Crown Casino Entertainment Complex (Melbourne, VIC),

Metro City (Perth, WA) and HQ Complex (Adelaide, SA).
